Annual Intercollegiate Students' Research Seminar

World of Civilizations: History and Mysteries

The annual intercollegiate students' seminar of the History department was held on March 1, 2021 on the theme World of Civilizations: History and mysteries. Vaidehi Savnal, Assistant Curator for International Relations and In-charge Education from Chatrapati Shivaji Maharaj Vastu Sangrahalaya was the Keynote Speaker for the inaugural session. Her address on the theme India and the World was an apt introduction of the seminar, rightly representing its theme. Dr. Usha R Vijaylakshmi, Associate Professor in Department of History of Patkar- Varde College graced the event as the Chief Guest. She gave an interesting talk titled Rise and Fall of Civilizations highlighting the need to approach the study of civilizations with the right critical approach. She also judged the first session of the seminar where six papers were presented. Mr. Debajit Ghosh, M. Phil Scholar from Visva Bharti University of West Bengal was the Guest Speaker. He made a presentation on Ancient Egyptian Civilization in the Light of Recent Discoveries (2018 - 2020). Five papers were presented in the second session judged by him. 27 students were beneficiaries of the seminar of which 16 presented papers. Students presented interesting papers on topics such as art, architecture, religion and polity of different civilizations. Their presentations were a visual treat. Judges commended their confidence and gave their expert advice on choice of topic and techniques of presentations. The seminar was a successful endeavour with stimulating discussions.
