Report of Research Skills Lecture 2

Lecture by Dr Seema C on "Postmodernism: Theory & Practice"

The second day of Research guidance session was held on 6th February 2021. The guest speaker, Dr Seema C, Assistant Professor, SIES College, introduced the theory of Postmodernism in detail. The fact that postmodernism celebrates multiplicity was brought forth by reading some diverse titles of papers from reputed articles published in journals. Dr Seema explained the difference between modernism and postmodernism based on their different characteristics. The session included the study of postmodernism through architecture and art. The attractive Power Point Presentation set the tone for rest of the session. Postmodernism in art was introduced with the help of various international structures such as Pruitt – Igoe Scheme, Piazza d'Italia, State Art Gallery and the Westin Bonaventure Hotel. In art, Quattrocento painting, Piet Mondrian pattern and Jackson Pollock's paintings were used to indicate postmodernism. She elaborated on the three main phases in literature – Realism, Modernism and Postmodernism. She threw light on further areas of research by drawing out a comparison between Modernism and Postmodernism. Finally, she answered the most awaited questions based on Postmodernism. The session, thus, ended with Dr Seema answering queries of students regarding postmodernism. A vote of thanks was proposed by students. 25 students were present for this session.
