Report of Creat-o-Genie 2021

The Department of English conducted Creat-o-Genie – An Intercollegiate Story writing Competition for UG and PG students on 13th February, 2021. This event is held every year by the department to commemorate the birthday of Sarojini Naidu, the Nightingale of India. The brochure was designed sent across to various colleges well in advance in order to invite the students for participation. The event received good response from UG and PG students of many colleges. Students poured in huge numbers on the given online platform on the day of the event to exhibit their creative skills. It was conducted online through Zoom platform where Musharrat Khan and Sejal Dubey, the meritorious ex-students of our college, were invited as judges of the competition. The students found the event interesting as they had to use the keywords displayed on the screen to create a story. All students were actively involved in writing the story. The students were proctored live online and after the given time limit they submitted their original stories to the judges through the email id created by the department for the competition. The students were judged on the following parameters- Setting and Plot, Characters, Chain of events, Opening sentence, Climax and idea. There were 16 entries in all for the event. 12 colleges including RJ College students participated in the event.

The prize winners were as follows:

Ms. Alisha Angre, Khalsa College, (UG Category) – 1st Prize

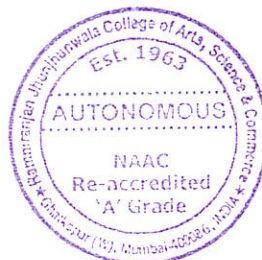

Ms. Venu Sharma, S.K. somaiya College, (UG Category) - 2nd Prize

Ms. Megha Berman, Khalsa College, (PG Category) - 3rd Prize

Ms. Sana Dumba, RJ College, (PG Category) - 1st Prize

MYBA. G.N. KHALSA
[GUITAR STRINGS]

didumna leaves falling down with the wind.
Sato-kun said to himself I cannot look it in nor can I the sweat it out. He was walking alone down the street saying "I'm not lonely" and reheating it.
Holding his guitar near his chest. A glimpse of rusted broken strings in front of his eyes.
Walking down the street he tripped upon a stone, fell right on his chest protecting the white marble designed guitar in his hands and sweating his elbows.
A boy he gathered himself together, raised his head and saw a jet black haired boy looking at him offering him a hand. These ocean blue eyes to die for in his the hues of this today's sky. He thought to himself. The next thing he knew that the boy in front of him was asking him questions about his broken bronze strings and rusted keys. "Are you okay?" asked the boy looking into sato-kun's bloodshot eyes.

Sato, having no hope for now tomorrow struggling to express his feelings in general couldn't say a single word. Again the boy asked, "Why aren't
