DBT STAR ACTIVITY- CHEM -BOND

The Department of Chemistry, Ramniranjan Jhunjhunwala College conducted an essay competition under the activity of Chem-Bond 2020. This is under the DBT star college scheme. The essay competition was arranged to improve the thinking and writing skills of our undergraduate students. FY, SY and TY students participated with full enthusiasm. The students were free to choose the title of their essay from among the given eight topics. The topics were decided by our chemistry department teachers and they were as follows:

1. Renewable energy resources
2. Polymers in day to day life
3. Chemistry of precious stones
4. Homogenous and heterogenous catalyst
5. H.C.Brown-Boron and me
6. Entropy and spontaneity
7. Chemistry of food and flavours
8. Application of nanotechnology in pharmaceutical industry

The competition was conducted online. The interested students have to register themselves using the link given to them. There were 30 students who participated in the event. After registration they were asked to upload their essay using a similar link. There was no fee charged from the students for this event. The students have to adhere to certain rules mentioned to them by our teachers. This includes, the word limit, font style and size etc. All participants were issued certificates after their essay submission. The last date for their submission was on 01/11/2020.
