INDUCTION PROGRAM SCHEDULE FOR NEWLY ADMITTED STUDENTS AT FIRST YEAR LEVEL

WEDNESDAY

2/9/2020

INDUCTION PROGRAM IN AN EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTION

Induction program in an educational institution for a new batch of students enrolling in a particular study program is primarily a hand-holding them through the initial period to calm the nerves, and to get them warmed up for the challenges that lie ahead. It is to provide to the student an opportunity to acclimatize to the new study environment, to adopt new methodology, to learn how to optimize use of the available resources to fulfill his/her aspirations, to imbibe the institutional culture and ethics and finally, working towards the mutual fulfillment of expectations of a student and teacher. Since first few days can be nerve wracking for the new student in a new class with new batch mates and new teachers, the induction program ensures they don't feel overwhelmed or stressed but feel confident about what is coming their way.

Given below is the schedule for induction program of all self financing section.

DEPT.	TIMING OF THE FIRST LECTURE AS PER TIME TABLE	OPENING OF THE INDUCTION PROGRAM
BBI	9.00AM	Common phase I interaction in Zoom Room of BAF at 8.00am *BBI students have to be called At 8.00am

Report of one week induction program for new batch of FYBA/BSc/BCom 2020-2021

In the prevailing Corona pandemic period, the new batch of First Year programs who completed their admissions were invited in the first week of their academic engagement through online mode of learning for the Induction Week. On the first day, Principal addressed the students giving an overview of the college, different programs offered by the institute, different student centric activities happening on the campus that builds the character of a student, services offered at college campus and code of conduct for the students. Vice principals in charge of examinations, extension activities and student support then interacted with the students. This was followed by interaction of In charges of NSS, NCC, DLLE, ROTRACT, SPORTS and CULTURAL association with the students through parallel sessions. On Day 2, sessions were arranged with the Psychiatrist on stress management, time management and goal setting. Akashwani radio jockey was invited to explain the importance of interpersonal skills for successful professional career. Young minds were also sensitized towards the environment protection, recycling of e-waste and small small green initiatives that can be practiced for healthy life through the session arranged on the second day of induction week. The opening session on Day 3 was conducted jointly by the Librarian and the placement officer followed by three parallel sessions where in subject teachers interacted with their students and explained the departmental ethos and facilities. Starting on day 3 till day 6, all departments conducted Bridge course for the students in their respective subjects to provide understanding of the subject in the backdrop of knowledge acquired by them in 11th & 12th classes. The learning with understanding and applying subject knowledge to acquire more refined knowledge in the subject and being able to solve any problem successfully using that knowledge was the centre theme of the bridge course. The entire Induction program was conducted through online mode using Zoom meeting platform wherein students participated with great enthusiasm.

Report of one week induction program for new batch of FYBA/BSc/BCom 2020-2021

In the prevailing Corona pandemic period, the new batch of First Year programs who completed their admissions were invited in the first week of their academic engagement through online mode of learning for the Induction Week. On the first day, Principal addressed the students giving an overview of the college, different programs offered by the institute, different student centric activities happening on the campus that builds the character of a student, services offered at college campus and code of conduct for the students. Vice principals in charge of examinations, extension activities and student support then interacted with the students. This was followed by interaction of In charges of NSS, NCC, DLLE, ROTRACT, SPORTS and CULTURAL association with the students through parallel sessions. On Day 2, sessions were arranged with the Psychiatrist on stress management, time management and goal setting. Akashwani radio jockey was invited to explain the importance of interpersonal skills for successful professional career. Young minds were also sensitized towards the environment protection, recycling of e-waste and small small green initiatives that can be practiced for healthy life through the session arranged on the second day of induction week. The opening session on Day 3 was conducted jointly by the Librarian and the placement officer followed by three parallel sessions where in subject teachers interacted with their students and explained the departmental ethos and facilities. Starting on day 3 till day 6, all departments conducted Bridge course for the students in their respective subjects to provide understanding of the subject in the backdrop of knowledge acquired by them in 11th & 12th classes. The learning with understanding and applying subject knowledge to acquire more refined knowledge in the subject and being able to solve any problem successfully using that knowledge was the centre theme of the bridge course. The entire Induction program was conducted through online mode using Zoom meeting platform wherein students participated with great enthusiasm.
