Report

The Ramniranjan Jhunjhunwala College UPSC coaching committee and Department of Political Science organised a special talk on 'Preparing for Civil Service Examination' on October 6, 2021. The event began with Prof Steven Lobo, Department of Political Science, welcoming the guest. Dr Sneha Deuskar, Vice Principal gave the welcome speech. Dr Meher Mistry, Head Department of History explained the significance of organising lectures on civil services. Prof Arundhati Chitre, Department of Sociology introduced the Chief Speaker Mr Bhushan Deshmukh.

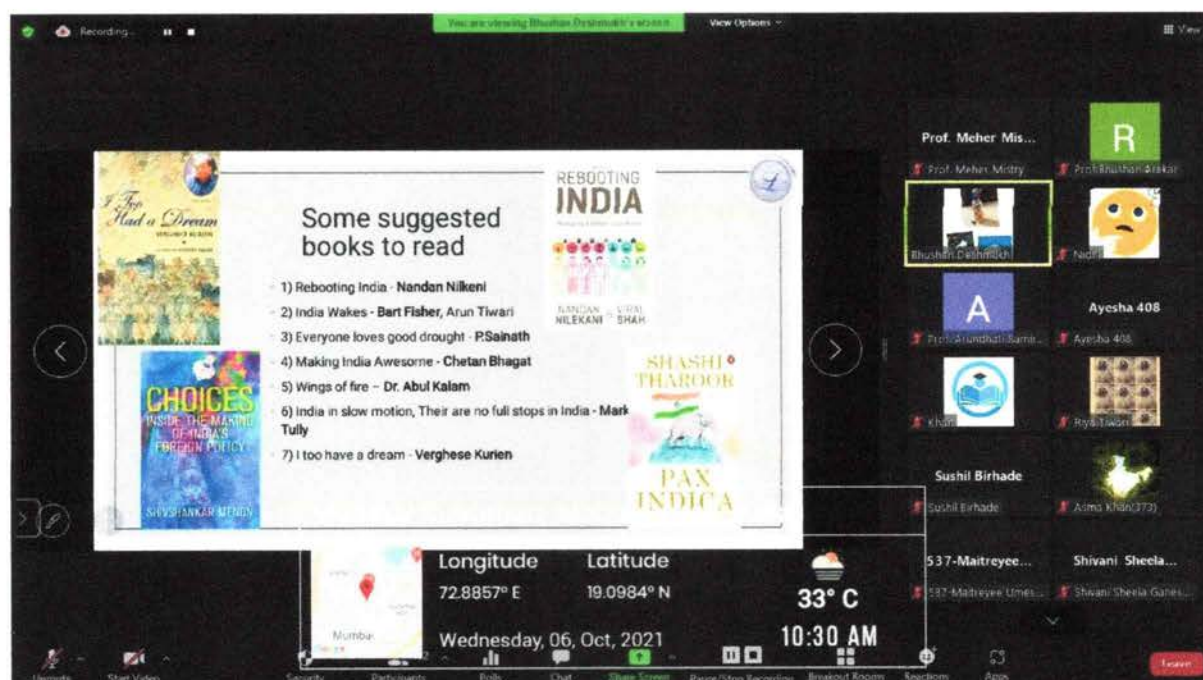

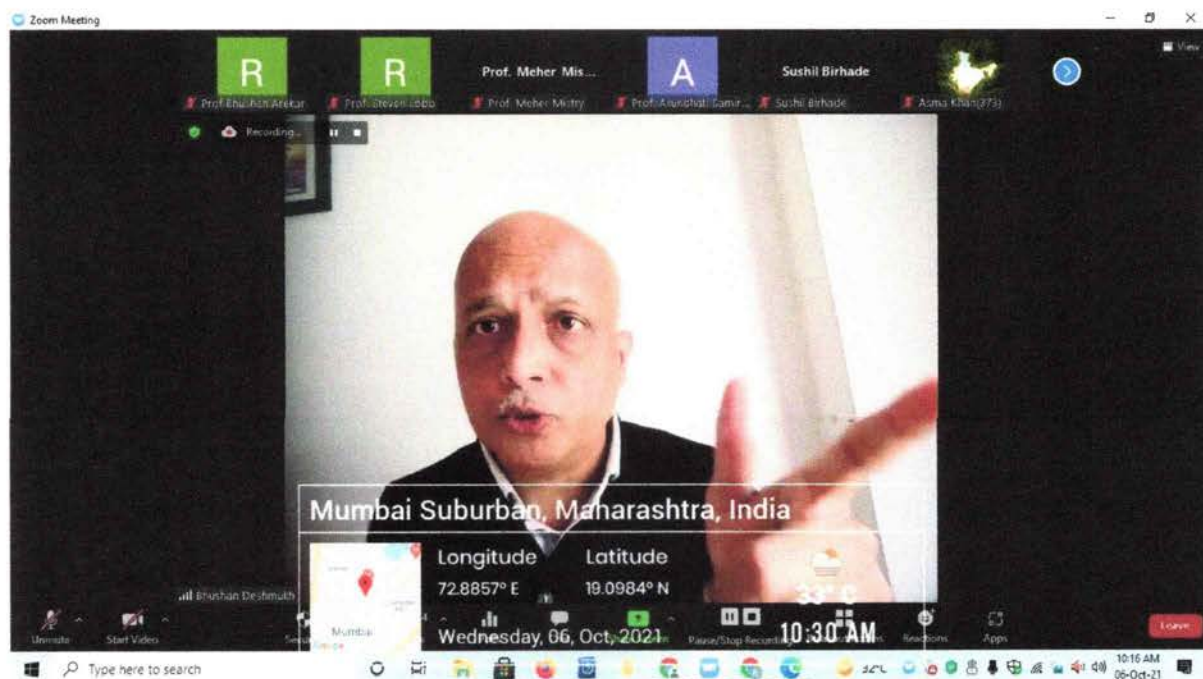

The talk was delivered by Mr Bhushan Deshmukh, Director of Lokyan Academy. Mr Deshmukh in his talk explained the basics of civil service examination and the intellectual, mental and psychological preparations required for the civil service examinations. He focussed on the consistency, dedication and determination that must be inculcated by the aspirant. The talk was followed by interaction with the students in order to resolve the doubts of the students pertaining to the civil service examination. One hundred and forty three students attended the talk.

The inaugural function concluded with the Vote of Thanks.
